

University Elevens Throughout Country Are Battling For First Honors

BENDER CREW GOT SHARE OF HITTING

Pres. Frank Issues Records of League for Past Season Showing Hoosiers Hold Third Place in Batting List.

Complete records for the Southern Michigan league have been issued by Pres. Frank of Jackson, showing that the South Bend team holds third place in heavy batting, that two of the Bender hurlers occupy fourth and fifth places in the pitching division and that a Hoosier outfielder has seventh caddy hole in the individual stick roll. According to the records from the president's office the Hoosier aggregation clouted 362 during the season, Bay City and Saginaw holding first and second positions respectively. Loudmilk came through with a pitching record of .714, while Williams followed just behind with .694. J. Jenkins of Bay City, Scott of Saginaw, and Russell of the Beavers, lead the league. Bert Broder, the Bender left fielder, batted .322 during the season, holding seventh place in this division. Harris of Bay City led the league with .385. Tom Stevenson, the sturdy shortstop, who was sold by Owner Ed Smith, now vice president of the Southern Michigan league, to the St. Louis Americans, topped second honors for stick work on the Hoosier crew with an average of .281. Williams, Smith's crack southpaw hurler, went into third place with .272. Curt never failed to get his share of the wallop at the right time and won several of his own games by his hitting ability. Bobby Green, center gardener, who was laid up for the last few games of the season, amiled home with .272, while Catcher Harry Lake grabbed a mark of .270.

Grodick Improved. Grodick, the Grand Rapids whirlwind infielder, who held down third bag during the later part of the summer, chalked up .269 for the season. When Joe first arrived on the scene last spring he could not see the end of his bat when he stepped to the plate, but within a few weeks the jinx broke and the infielder hammered the ball consistently. Diem, right fielder, got away with .266, while Mr. Ben Koehler cracked out .264 for his first season with the Southern Michigan in South Bend. Korfagen, the Hoosier utility man, recorded .245 for the season, and George Beall, the brilliant fielding first baseman, landed with .233.

Duffy stuck up a mark of .208 with the club while performing in the box, and Ed Smith got .160 in 13 games in which he participated at the bat during the season. Walter Schorr, the lanky youngster who was drafted by the

WILL CLASH IN LAST TWO GAMES OF SERIES

The city baseball title will be in the balance until Sunday night. A double header tomorrow afternoon will decide the title. These two games will be staged on the A. B. C. diamond at Notre Dame and St. Vincent st. when the A. B. C. team, colored, clashes with the Hoosier Creams. The two games are the remaining ones of a series of three. The Hoosier Creams grabbed the first one last week by the score of 4 to 0.

That the games will be exciting goes without saying. Both teams are known to the fans of the city and put up a snappy, scrappy article of ball. The city championship was in doubt for some time when the A. B. C. team cleaned the Milk Maids in three straight games, followed by the latter team defeating the Hoosier Creams, champions of the title. To settle the dispute for once and all time, the series was arranged between the colored lads and the Hoosier Creams.

Some good semi-professional talent is on both teams. The Hoosier Creams boast of such stars as Bender, Gruber, Hansen, Hyde and Connors. Against this galaxy of stars their opponents will pit Mahoney, "Mose" Davis, Weaver, Dunlap, "Van" Johnson, "Archie" Bennett, Bell, Jackson and Fields. "Mose" and "Archie" are said to be the Nick Altrock and "Germany" Schafer of South Bend ball players.

The first game will be called at 2 o'clock.

GAME AT NOTRE DAME.
The curtain will be raised on the Notre Dame football season this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock on Carlier field when the varsity is scheduled to meet the fast aggregation representing Alma college of Alma, Mich. Although the locals are confident of piling up a large score against the Alma lads, the territory is crisscrossed and a number of the second team men will no doubt be given a chance to make good.

Coffal will be sent in as quarterback having sufficiently recovered from injuries received a few days ago. Thorpe is still out of the game on account of a cracked shoulder which he received during the scrimmage with the freshmen Thursday and will not be played today. Eichenlaub, Duggan, Jones and Voelkers are other men who will not take the field today because of injuries, according to a statement made by Asst. Coach Rockne last evening. The official line-up which will start the game follows:

Edward and Mills, ends; Ward and Keefe, guards; Fitzgerald, center; Coffal, quarter; Fliska and Kelleher, half; Finegan, fullback.

With so many men on the injured list it is with misapprehension that Notre Dame looks on the coming game with Yale. Some confidence, however, is still felt in the camp and much hope is still held out for the recovery of most of the fellows before the 17th.

The game with the freshmen Thurs-

HIGH WILL MEET WARSAW SQUAD

After a liberal use of the long distance telephone Friday night, Coach Metzler secured a game for the high school squad. Warsaw agreed to the terms and will be on hand for the battle when the whistle blows at 3 o'clock at Springbrook park. Warsaw earned a reputation last year of being a hard team to down, although little is known of them this year. It is rumored that the squad is a fast one and will doubtless put up a strong bid for honors.

On account of the non-issuance of season athletic tickets every one will be charged 25c at the gate, but the names of the students will be taken and this amount deducted from the price of the ticket when it is purchased.

The squad that faces Warsaw will see many changes from the lineup of last Saturday against the alumni. Hagerty, a star linesman and one of the most dependable men on the squad will not play, owing to the sudden death of his mother, Friday morning. It is doubtful whether "Doc" Boswell will be in action, as he has been on the hospital list, the major share of the week.

Elbel will go in at tackle in place of Hagerty, while Scheibelhut and J. Meyers will work at Boswell's position at left end. Handy, Nelson and Sweeney, men who were elevated from the scrubs during the week, will be given their chance in the game today. Handy will work at guard, Nelson at tackle and Sweeney will perform at full back, play, while man will play center, but may be tried at left end during part of the game. The lineup as announced by Coach Metzler Friday night is: Sullivan, re; Elbel, Nelson, rt; Handy, rg; Whitman, Elbel, c; L. Meyers, Collier, lg; Stanley, H. J. Meyers, Scheibelhut, Boswell or Whitman, le; Fernandez, Lower, qb; Wolf, lb; Scott, rrb; Garfield, Sweeney, fb.

FOUR YEAR PACER WINS FAST EVENT

R. H. Brett is Star of Closing Day at Columbus When He Captures Race—Indiana Trotter Wins.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 3.—R. H. Brett, the champion four-year-old pacing gelding who was outlawed last week by the judges and reinstated again this week, was the star of Friday at the driving park, where the grand circuit meeting came to a close. Five heats had been raced Thursday in the 2:05 pace, Minnie Chimes winning two and Brett, Our Colonel and Lowanda one each. In the raceoff Friday, Brett won the sixth and seventh heats, the final in 2:05 1-2, a new world's record for a seventh heat, the best previous being the 2:06 3-4 of Walter Cochato made two years ago.

The Indiana trotter Wilko was a surprise winning the 2:10 trot over the heavy favorite Judson Girl.

The California mare May Mack was a straight heat winner of the 2:08 trot, and took a new record of 2:06 1-4 in the first heat.

The Chicago mare Fair Virginia, won the 2:12 trot after losing a heat to Mirthful.

Beth Clark, the favorite, won the 2:0 pace.
